

2 Isaiah (chapters 40-66)

Nations

Yahweh

Ideal Servant

The Prophet

Exiles

This changing world has no security. All things pass and fade; all the old and comfortable is replaced with the new and strange. If we look for security here, we shall never find it. But those who have submitted themselves to become disciples of the Lord, in whom peace and righteousness have come to dwell, have a rest in the eternal purposes of God that nothing can disturb. That is security.

2 Isaiah (chapters 40-66)

